Bielle Distillery - 1769 by Jean-Pierre Bielle
R3517	Rhum Bielle, 2002/2014, 12YO, Island of Marie Galante, Guadeloupe (52%) A rare and collectible vintage release from the secret pearl of the Caribbean. Orange, lemon, black pepper and banana. Soon gives way to a gamut of baking spices.	-	3700
Brugal - 1888 by Don Anders Brugal
R1208	Brugal, Ron Blaco, 151, Release 1980s, Dominican Republic (75.5%) High Proof-Highly Sought After-Highly Collectible old school crystal clear white rum released in the 80s.	108	-
Clément - 1887 by Homere Clément
R3516	Clément, 1976, 20YO, Très Vieux Rhum Blanc Agricole, Martinique (50%) A legendary vintage release. Dark amber in color from decades of maturing in oak barrels. Vanilla, moderate oak and toasted almonds. Full body, slightly warming and dry. Spot on with the aromas and it ends nicely with an exceedingly long and dry finish.	-	2100
Destilería Serrallés - Around 1860 by Don Juan Serrallés
R2245	Destilería Serrallés, Don Q, 20YO, Reserva de la Familia Serrallés, Puerto Rico (40%) Dark butter roasted nuts and fruits, frosted caramel cake, and rich brown spices. Velvety, bright, dryish fat body and a smooth, intricate, with long finishes of spice cake, dried fruits, cherry cola, and creme brulee. A superb, long-aged Rum with cascading waves of evolving flavors.	-	12000
R1211	RonRico, 1960s, White Label, Destilería Serrallés, Puerto Rico (40%) A white label Puerto Rican rum produced in the 1960s, for imports to Italy in the 1960s. The label has suffered a fair bit of damage, but this remains very collectible indeed.	-	1700
Diplomático - 1959, by Don Juan Meléndez
R2271	Diplomático, Distillery Collection, No.2, Barbet Rum, 2013, 4YO, Batch No.3, Venezuela (47%) Nose: Grilled honeydew melon, charred brown sugar and chocolate overlay with orange peels, also the raisin, banana and white fruits. Well lifted with zestier nuance, nice resin oak develop overtimes, cedar, tobacco and finely sweet. Palate: Waxy white fruits with polished oak phenol, balanced with full mouthfeel that comes with subtle tropical fruits underlay. Adore the drifting spiciness in this one. Finish: Medium long, dry and clean with delicate wood lasted the distances.	69	830
Long Pond Distillery - Mythical, probably on 1753 by Simon Clarke
R5023	Captain Morgan, Black Label, Release 1980s, Jamaica (73%) Uncommercial kind of Jamaican vibe with a good hit of funk, fermented pineapple, banana and some bitter molasses. Solid spirit albeit young, and besides the caramel, it hasn't been messed with.	-	1740
Moux Distillery - 1992, by David Moux
R5003	Tamure Rhum, Vanille, Tahiti (47%) On the nose, vanilla will surprise you with its aromatic power. On the palate, the finesse of vanilla blends with the delicate taste of sugar cane, rich and delicious.	58	-
Roneras de Santiago de Cuba - 1862
R2215	Santiago de Cuba, Isla del Tesoro, Cuba (40%) Isla del Tesoro - Treasure Island. Was formerly used as gifts by the Cuban government. Exceptional rum in a ceramic bottle and a wooden chest. Coffee beans, brown sugar, orange peels, apricot and chocolate-covered peanuts.	-	4400
Tiki Lovers - 2015 by Stephan Berg and Alexander Hauck
R2402	Tiki Lovers, Pineapple (40%) This is not your fake pineapple rum, which hides its flavors, but shows its bold character of intense dark Caribbean rum and fresh & fruity pineapple notes. The freshness strikes the palate right away, and there is no doubt the natural extracts play the key role here as it just tastes awesome.	49	-
Worthy Park Estate - 1670 by Lieutenant Francis Price
R2063	Mezan, 2005, 10YO, Worthy Park, Jamaica (40%) Nose: Bananas and lemons, brine, olives, vague sweetness. One could sense cherries, a little funkiness, unsweetened chocolate and a continual background of orange peel, all of which remained light and relatively amicably. Palate: Apples, cider, raspberries, tart unsweetened yoghurt, chocolate and nuts underscored by the thin line of citrus peel. Finish: Short, orchard fruits lingers on.	35	-
R2094	Worthy Park, Single Cane Estate Rum, Jamaica (40%) Nose: Toffee and a saltiness which dominates over the fainter toffee and chocolate aromas, with a decent amount of oak and spice on the nose. Balanced and quite inviting. Palate: Oaky and pretty spicy – ginger and a little white pepper to begin with. Finish: Reasonably long, quite spicy and enjoyable.	30	-
